Seeking Love

Seeking Love

Kurumu walked down the hall as fast as she could. Earlier Kurumu went to Moka's room to ask her if she could help her study. When Kurumu walked in, she saw Moka and Tsukune undressed, on Moka's bed. Kurumu was moving as fast as she could to get away and get that image out of her head. She finally got to her room but when she entered, she noticed it was quite cold in there. Kurumu made her way to her bed to try and warm up and to sleep the day away. When she layed down, she began to cry. Not because of her being inlove with Tsukune, but because she just wished that she had someone who loved her as much as Tsukune loves Moka. The succubus wasn't really inlove with him but she just wanted someone who made her feel special like he made Moka feel.

She then noticed someone else in her room but her eyes were to watery so she couldn't tell until she heard a familiar voice. "Hey, are you OK?"

Mizore kneeled beside Kurumu. "Yeah, I just saw something I wish I didn't."

Mizore chuckled "Let me guess, you walked in on Moka and Tsukune?"

Kurumu nodded "How did you know?"

Mizore wiped her tears away as she replied "Cause, no one looks at eachother like that unless they are planning on having sex."

Kurumu sighed "I just wish that I found love like that with someone who didn't just want sex but wanted more. Is that too much to ask for?"

Mizore smiled slightly as she slowly shook her head "No, I guess that we all just got to find the one we are going to be with the rest of our lives, in our own way."

Kurumu understood what she was trying to say. "Well, can you do something for me?"

Mizore nodded. Kurumu moved back then said "Can you lay by me for awhile?"

Mizore stood up then slid under the blankets as Kurumu layed her head on Mizore's arm. Kurumu woke up early in the morning for school. When she looked around, she noticed that Mizore wasn't in the room. "Alright, guess I got to do my normal thing and got to class."
